OLD WORLD HOSPITALITY PRIVATE LIMITED (O.W.H.) – BRIEF PROFILE

Old World Hospitality is the only company in India, which manages hotels, restaurants (Quick Service, Casual and Fine Dining), clubs, cultural and convention facilities, venue catering, visual and performing arts and entertainment – all with equal aplomb.

The Company owns and operates Hotel Broadway, New Delhi, which is home to the celebrated 'Chor Bizarre - India's Restaurant'. In 1996 RWTUV, Germany certified Hotel Broadway as India's first ISO-9002 Hotel, Restaurant and Banquet facility - the highest recognition for quality in the country, an exceptional tribute to the O.W.H. team and a rare honour for a hotel built in 1956.

O.W.H. operates the hospitality and cultural facilities known as 'Habitat World' at India Habitat Centre. Located in the heart of the city, Habitat World boasts the country's most comprehensive Convention Centre with 20 function rooms, 4 performance venues, 6 restaurants, a members' club with 58 guest rooms and a fitness centre.

Since it opened in 1997, Habitat World has held three to four cultural events every day - be it theatre, music concerts, dance performances, films, talks or open fora and has seen some of the most illustrious names in the world participate in its cultural calendar. Habitat World serves over 5000 meals daily, hosts over 6000 conferences and banquets each year and organizes over 1000 live cultural events annually making it India's largest foodservice and entertainment destination.

O.W.H. expanded its operations to Noida (East of Delhi) in 2003 with the opening of 'Chor Bizarre', 'Oriental Octopus' and 'Lynx' - a Party Room and to Gurgaon (South of Delhi) with another Chor Bizarre.

O.W.H. opened Epicentre, Gurgaon in January 2008 which brings to that part of the NCR an auditorium, an art gallery, an amphitheatre, restaurant, conference & banquet rooms and a 45000 sq ft exhibition and convention hall which can also hold functions for 3000 people.

O.W.H. operates 21 restaurants in the N.C.R. including New Delhi's first and still the most popular food court (Eatopia) with 5 sub brands. Its Q.S.R foray has continued with the launch of Indian restaurant counters (Tikka Town) and Oriental ones (Orient 8). In addition Oriental Octopus, The All American Diner, Delhi 'O' Delhi, Past Times, The Deck and Drift have all carved out their special niches. Operating different restaurant concepts and straddling every concept, cuisine and wallet with equal panache is O.W.H.'s forté. With over 700 employees in the N.C.R., O.W.H. takes immense pride in its people and its unique training programme. Its management depth is further proven through the successful operations of 3 award winning restaurants in the food capital of the world - London.

London Restaurants

The first London branch of an Indian restaurant, 'Chor Bizarre', commenced operations in Mayfair in 1997. It has won several accolades, including being voted as one of the Best 10 Restaurants in London by The Independent and The Best North Indian Restaurant in U.K. by The Good Curry Guide. It was also listed amongst 'The top 5 imports in the world along with Nobu and others by Evening Standard. In the afternoons Chor Bizarre converts into Chai Bazaar serving 30 different teas from India and traditional Indian sweets and street snacks and also houses an Art Gallery – Chor Bizarre, India's Art on the lower ground floor.

Tamarai is a Restaurant, Bar and Club in Covent Garden that serves Pan Asian cuisine and can seat 110 for lunch and dinner with a bar capacity of 300. Designed as a hybrid hub it is a fine dining restaurant, which during the day time also becomes a perfect choice for business meetings, launches and screenings. Post 5.30 pm Tamarai re-invents itself seamlessly from a fine dining restaurant to a late night bar and club. Tamarai has been voted The Best Late Night Bar in London at the 2008 Theme Bar awards. On the heels of the Best Wine List in London (The Independent), Best Pan Fusion Food in London (Evening Standard), this is truly a terrific new milestone and exceptionally gratifying for an Indian hospitality company to achieve this in London.

Sitaaray, (also in the same building) is an authentic North Indian Grill set against a stunning cinematic background celebrating 75 years of Indian cinema. An exciting addition to the heart of London's theatre land, it is a dining concept combining the two greatest Indian exports - its cinema and its cuisine. Says A.A. Gill of the Sunday Times. "The room is a temple to Bollywood... like a fairy tale, the plates keep on coming, getting faster and faster, tastier and tastier"

Events Etc., the Catering and Entertainment division of O.W.H is considered the most premium service of its kind in New Delhi drawing upon the talented repertoire of O.W.H. Chefs. Counting the major Embassies, top corporates and Delhi's most discerning hosts as its regular clients, it has also executed large location caterings as well as held Food Festivals overseas at The Ritz, Paris, Harrods, London, The Cannes International Film Festival etc. Events Etc. now is also London's top pan Asian catering company.

The O.W.H Management Consultancy Services Division has carried out several assignments for blue chip companies in India and overseas. This division, in addition to being the foremost Food & Beverage Consultancy of its kind, prides itself as probably the only one with experience in planning and executing Clubs and Convention Centres.

Old World Academy is the educational arm of the group that organises continuing educational courses and workshops and has tied up in the past with the School of Hotel Administration, Cornell University and the Tisch School for Arts, N.Y.U. – two world leaders in O.W.H's fields of hospitality and entertainment.

O.W.H. has just taken over the operations of The Manor, New Delhi – until recently an Aman Resort. Once renovated, 23 luxury suites shall be added to the 15 existing rooms and suites. A unique Spa concept as well as a signature restaurant are also on the anvil.

The credo of the company is to provide a memorable experience in each guest interaction.
